The second of the series of games for the Chapman & Jakeman cup took place, as announced, at the park yesterday, and when the game was called there were not a great many enthusiasts present, but as the game progressed the gathering grew larger, until quite a respectable number had assembled. But the crowd was not assembled, But the crowd was not assembled but the crowd was not assembled but the crowd was not assembled but the crowd was not assembled. But the crowd was not assembled but the crowd was not assembled but the crowd was not assembled. But the crowd was not assembled but the great work of the Norfolk team is taken into consideration. Their performance should be more fully appreciated than was shown yesterday, and especially so when the games as being played now are for a trophy, as well as being individually beneficial to the members of the teams.

Week's started in to pitch and remained in the box for three innings, when he gave way for there, and how hadly either one of the twirlers were punished will be seen by the appended score. Put that might as weel be said here, for it is nothing to the discredit of either one of them, for nine hits in a game of ball should not be, in fact is not, bad work, for a pitcher who can hold a team down to an average of nine hits a game will come pretty near coming out with flying colors at the cid of the season. That is all the Truckers got off them. Now let us see what the Crows did for Moynishan and Brandt, for the home boys got on to the first named gentleman, and were rapping him quite hard, when ann and Brandt, for the home boys got on to the first named gentleman, and were rapping him quite hard, when Brandt was substituted.

"Big Willie" checked the "crows" in their batting record, but it was discovered after the game was finished that the Norfolks had gotten just ten hits one nore than the number secured by the visitors. The game was fairly interesting after the first inning, Fortamouth at the start piling up five runs to her credit, which, of course, did not make the "crow rooters" take much interest, but after that Norfolk made a rally and only lacked one run of tiling the score in the fifth inning, the score standing then 8 to 7 in favor of Portsmouth. In the sixth the Truckers chased two more men across the plate through "Pete" Hall's double. The home team failed to score any more, and the game went to the visitors by a score of 10 to 7.

Of this circus, which will exhibit here on the 28th intant, an exchange says:

"While abroad Sells Brothers added notably to their special attractions by purchasing in Austral'a, East India and elsewhere, many exceedingly rare and royal wild beasts, birds and reptiles; among them five tremendous tigers, any one of which is big encorn it is a swallow any other one heretolore exhibited as whole drove of giant kangaroso of varied hue; a flock of splendid full-grown and baby emus; prodigious constricting serpents, singular apes, and superbly plumaged language gifted birds."

The All-Star Vaudeville is the chief attraction at the View this week. Lew Simmons, the 'old timer,' sings some very funny songs this week and is well received. La Petitle Edith offers a complete change of specialty from her unlimited repertoirs: Downey & Hinchey presented a different act at each performance yesterday, and Mr. Downey's old lady character and Mr. Hinchey's recitations deserve special mention. They are both good performers and vocalists and have proven good cards. Tony Fernandez introduces many new and unheard of musical novelties, which he plays to perfection. The one act comedy that closed the show was a distinct hit. This is the first comedy ever put on at the View and they all went home roaring.

Take a run down to-night or to-morrow afternoon, or any time, and see a good, refined show. Performances at the usual time.

M. Holloman, white, was before Juntice Burroughs yesterday charged with breaking and entering No. 19 Newton street. It was shown, however, that the man was so drunk at the time that he did not know what he was doing. He also claimed to have received a cut on the head some years ago and that whenever he used intoxicants it rendered him irresponsible, and that the place which he tried to enter was where he formerly lived. Justice Burroughs dismissed the warrant containing the above charge, but fined the prisoner $1.50 and coars for being drunk and the same amount for using profane language on the street.

He Reiterates His Statement that Th Church's Action Was Premature.

Editor Virginian:

Sir.—I wish to ask the privilege of replying, as briefly as possible, to the set of resolutions, involving my name, and which appeared in your issue of to-day over the signatures of C. B. Beale, W. W. Broadbent, H. S. Jarvis and D. W. Snow.

In these "resolutions" I am severely brought to bur for presuming to criticise the action of the church they represent, in expelling Officer R. J. Bass from its fellowship.

I whish to say, first, that I deeply deplore the necessity of having my name to appear in this connection, and of being forced to vindicate myself in the public print for my act in addressing a note to Commissioner C. E. Verdier, in behalf of Officer R. J. Bass. My letter, let me say here, was not written for the public eye, nor with the design of publicly criticising the church's action, but was simply sent to the Commissioner in the hope of preventing any too precipitate action on the part of the Police Board toward Mr. Bass. Since this publicity, however, has become necessary for the defense of right, I have now no objection to the use Mr. Verdier has made of the letter, nor have I any disposition to recede from the position taken in it, even though this would seem to bring in question the infalibility of a church's action.

Brieffy, the facts are these: Officer Bass, having been expelled from his church and linding that this would be likely to jeopardize his position to the case it became apparent to my mind that the law and contitution by which this church, in common with all regular Baptist churches, are governed was knowed and set aside in this case, and that this proceeding on the part of the church would probably lend to send a noe of warning to Commissioner Verdier to guard the board to send a noe of warning to Commissioner in other to guard the board to send a noe of warning to Commissioner verdier to guard the board to send a noe of warning to Commissioner in other than the sum of the proceeding was "premature, ill considered and unjustifiable," and that said proceeding wa
